Vol. 14 No. 6 Week of August 6 thru August 11, 1962

NANCY WALKER, AMERICA'S FAVORITE COMEDIENNE, STARS NEXT WEEK IN JOHN PATRICK'S DELIGHTFUL COMEDY, "EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL"

The critics say . . .

"Nancy Walker is the first lady among female clowns."

"Nancy Walker is one of the funniest Women in the world."

"Nancy Walker is a great comic artist."

"Nancy Walker is a superb clown."

"Nancy Walker is one of the truly great comediennes of our times."

Next week Cape Playhouse audiences will have a rare opportunity to see Nancy Walker in one of the funniest roles of her career; the loveable part of Opal in John Patrick's uproarious comedy, "Everybody Loves Opal." And, judging from advance reviews, after her hilarious romp it is doubtful if the Playhouse stage will ever be the same.

Famed as a musical comedy and revue star, Nancy Walker recently starred on Broadway with Phil Silvers in the musical hit, "Do Re Mi." She previously established herself as one of our most talented performers in a long list of Broadway plays; namely, "On The Town," "Pal Joey," "Wonderful Town," "Look Ma I'm Dancing," "Copper and Brass," "Phoenix 55," and "Barefoot Boy with Cheek." She will be remembered by thousands of playgoers for her performance in Noel Coward's "Fallen Angels."

The show, one of the highlights of our season, will be directed by Dan Levin and Helen Pond of the playhouse staff will design the set. Tickets may be reserved at the box-office during the first intermission of tonight's play.

SHOPPING ADDS TO VACATION PLEASURES

HURWITCH BROS. of Boston and Falmouth always has a distinctive collection of the most exclusive fashions. By all means you should drop in and see their new fall fashions on the Parkway. Their designers have conjured up a beautiful, elegant and thoroughly delightful collection of the smartest fashions for fall.

BUTTNER'S year round stores on Cape Cod, Nantucket and Plymouth are now showing their selective collection of fall fashions for misses, women and children. Also being shown are notions, hosiery and lingerie—all distinctly feminine and flattering. In addition Buttner's gift department has a wide variety of gifts with a bit of imagination for those special people in your life.

THE GRAY SHOP at Osterville and at 418 Boylston Street in Boston have been busy this summer bringing the latest in fashions to the North Shore and South Shore. Fall clothes for the smart matron and wonderful outfits for the college bound lass set the keynote for the forthcoming season .

Fashions for Summer and Fall can be found at HASCKEL'S, 342 Main Street, Hyannis, on Cape Cod since 1904. Quality apparel to suit the discriminating shopper by all the famous makes at reasonable prices in dresses, sportswear, coats, suits and lingerie are yours at Hasckel's. Shop with comport in the large air-conditioned store.

WHY THEY CHOSE CAPE COD

Mr. and Mrs. B. at work in their lovely garden.
"I do the rough work", says Mr. B. — "My wife raises the flowers".

"We Chose the Cape After Traveling Half the World"

Before retirement, Mr. B. was geologist in charge of foreign explorations for one of the major oil companies. He and his wife have spent much of their life abroad, and have travelled extensively in the United States.

"We gave a good deal of thought to where we wanted to live after retirement", says Mr. B. "Although we had been to the Cape only a few times as summer visitors, we selected it as the ideal spot for us.

"First, we wanted a country environment, yet close enough to metropolitan centers for occasional trips. Then I wanted good fishing and duck and quail shooting, and I don't know where you could find better. My wife loves the outdoors too, and gardening and painting occupy a lot of her time. We also wanted congenial contemporaries with similar interests, and we have found plenty of them here.

"We find that the Cape offers a wide variety of interests for every season—and its hold on you grows fast!"

Mr. and Mrs. B. are typical of many families who are making Cape Cod their permanent home. Many are still active in business or semi-retirement.

The Cape offers something for everyone. You don't have to be a fisherman or even own a boat, although it's one of the choicest spots in the world for these sports. Winter is the busiest time of the year for the permanent residents. There are groups interested in a wide range of subjects from art to navigation, and for those who want to take part in civic and church activities, the door is wide open.

Today, there is a wide choice of home sites and homes — either in well-planned residential communities or as individual properties. There are older homes which can be remodeled — or brand new ones — already for you to move in.

Why not look into Cape Cod as the place for your home? Write us, giving your preference as to area and family requirements.

Send for booklet, "A Wonderful Way of Life."

Who's Who in the Cast

ALLEN LUDDEN (Parker Ballentine) is nationally renowned as the genial moderator of the Peabody Award winning G-E College Bowl and as host of the very popular television word game Password." Mr. Ludden is a scholar, author and former educator as well as a performer. His published works include "Plain Talk About College," "Plain Talk for Women Under 21," "Plain Talk for Men Under 21," and a novel, "Roger Thomas, actor."

Mr. Ludden was a Phi Betta Kapa student at the University of Texas, from which he holds both A. B. and M. A. degrees. After graduation, he taught at the Austin High School and at his Alma Mater. Before he entered the Army in 1942 he had directed the Austin Little Theatre and had worked in stock companies in Westport, Connecticut and Princeton, New Jersey. During his wartime military duty, he worked with Maurice Evans in the Pacific, and produced and directed more than 40 Army shows.

After the war he rejoined Mr. Evans as personal manager and advance man for a nationwide tour of "Hamlet." In 1947 he was employed as a publicist for the Ivorytown Playhouse, and then in broadcasting for WTIC in Hartford, Connecticut. His Hartford radio program, Mind Your Manners, received national honor as recipient of both a Peabody Award and two Ohio State Awards. Mr. Ludden transferred his activities to New York in 1953 where he became moderator of the radio forerunner of G-E College Bowl. In addition to his television chores as host and moderator, he is Consultant for Creative Services, CBS News, and was Director of Program Services for CBS Radio stations and Program Director of WCBS Radio in New York. Mr. Ludden resides in Briarcliff Manor, New York, with his three children.

BETTY WHITE (Angela Ballantine), one of television's most popular performers, achieved national fame through over 50 appearances on the Jack Paar Show. Television viewers also have seen Miss White as a semi-regular panelist on "To Tell The Truth;" as Allen Ludden's guest on "Password;" as star of the United States Steel Hour's dramatic show, "Scene of the Crime;" and, for the past nine years, as hostess of the Rose Bowl Parade, nationally televised from Pasadena, California. In addition to her heavy television schedule, Miss White has garnered critical praise as a stage and screen actress. As a musical comedy performer, she has starred in highly successful productions of "The King and I," "Brigadoon" and with Jack Carson in "Take Me Along." In Hollywood, she recently made her first motion picture, "Advise and Consent." A resident of Brentwood, California,, Miss White first entered television in a show called "Life With Elizabeth" and subsequently was awarded her own vehicle by NBC, "The Betty White Show," which brought her immediate national popularity. In 1952 the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (Los Angeles) awarded her the coveted "Emmy" as the Outstanding Female Personality of the year.

NANCY CUSHMAN (Charlotte Orr) has the distinction of appearing on Broadway in four Pulitzer Prize plays: "Death of a Salesman," "Cat On A Hot Tin Roof," "Look Homeward Angel," and "J. B." Miss Cushman's first Broadway appearances occured twenty-five years ago in "White Man," after which she played in "Storm over Patsy" and "Gloriana." During the early months of World War II she served as Assistant Director of the Times Square Service Men's Center. She returned to Broadway for a two-year run featured in Brock Pemberton's "Janie," and later toured the Pacific with "Junior Miss." After a series of stock engagements, Miss Cushman went on an extended National trek with "Death of a Salesman." She then returned to Broadway in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," and followed that hit with a tour in "Desk Set" and, later, with Walter Pidgeon in the National tour of "The Happiest Millionaire." Her next Broadway assignments were "Look Homeward Angel," "The Man In A Dog Suit," and "J. B." Last year she was in Edward Albee's prize play, "The American Dream," which she left to join the National company of "Critic's Choice." Miss Cushman appeared at the Cape Playhouse during 1960 in LYNNE ROGERS (Ivy London) is a graduate, magna cum laude, of Queens College in New York, and has attended the Yale University Drama School and Columbia University. She has played on tour in "Death of a Salesman" and in "Petticoat Fever" with Red Buttons. Miss Rogers will be recognized by television fans for her portrayals in the daytime serials The Guiding Light and As the World Turns.

TOM KEENA (Dion Kapakos), a native of Hartford, Connecticut, was first introduced to theatre through his high school dramatics coach. He began working in summer stock as a jack of all trades while in his early teens. Until his graduation from Wesleyan University in 1958, he considered theatre an avocation, but, when he was asked to join the resident company of actors in Peterborough, N. H., he decided to enter professional theatre. Brought to the attention of Broadway producers, he was chosen for the important role of the roustabout messenger in the national company of the Pulitzer Prize winning play "J. B."

His credits include leading roles in off-Broadway productions of "Family Portrait," "My Three Angels," "Phoenix Too Frequent," and the "Caine Mutiny Court Martial." Mr. Keena continues to direct original plays off-Broadway as a mem-

DAVID LUDDEN (John Ballantine), 14-year-old son of Allen Ludden, is making his first stage appearance in this week's production of "Critic's Choice." The oldest of Mr. Ludden's three children, David attended schools in Dobbs Ferry and Briarcliff, New York. In the fall he will enter Andover. The young Mr. Ludden was President of his class in the 7th grade and, prior to that, had been a Student Council representative for two years. He is active in sports, preferring baseball and basketball, and last year won his letter in basketball at Briarcliff Junior High School.

MAREN HINDERLIE (Essie), a native of Minneapolis, Minnesota, Miss Hinderlie is one of six young actors studying this summer at the American Theatre Wing—Cape Playhouse Professional Training Center. She studied advanced acting at the American Theatre Wing in New York City, and has appeared in a number of plays, namely, "The Merchant of Venice," "The Lark," and "Peter Pan."

CAPE COD HAS MANY INTERESTING PLACES

For an exciting day for both children and adults the EDAVILLE RAILROAD on Route 58 in South Carver, Mass., offers a wonderful outing for the whole family. There you may enjoy a 5½ mile ride on a real steam train of the "Gay Nineties," ride a 102 year old carousel from Amsterdam, Holland, or ride on a 1892 horse car. Edaville offers a museum of antique toy trains and railroadiana, guns, autos and old time fire fighting equipment with antique fire engine rides around the grounds. Picnic facilities and a playground for the children are at hand and a delicious Chicken-Cranberry Barbecue is served daily. Edaville combines the gaiety and excitement of an amusement park with the educational value of a historical museum.

At the CAPE COD CUSTOM HOUSE, you'll find not only the largest array of fine handcrafted gifts—you'll actually see many of them being made. Each artist is a distinguished leader in his field . . . a true craftsman, employing the age-old skills and techniques which have been passed down from generation to generation—father to son . . . mother to daughter. You'll marvel at their dexterity—be intrigued by the beautiful things they create just while you're watching. Being both fascinating and educational, this "living" museum is an unusual pleasure for the entire family. Don't miss it!

Because most items sold at the Cape Cod Custom House are genuinely handcrafted no two are exactly alike. In this regard, they are truly distinctive . . . will be used or given with pride.

AMERICAN THEATRE WING — CAPE PLAYHOUSE PROFESSIONAL TRAINING CENTER

at Dennis

The "Training Center" is an intensive summer extension of the Professional Training Program of the American Theatre Wing carried on the rest of the year in New York City.

The American Theatre Wing is a non-profit organization which includes every important element of the theatre world—actors, producers, directors, critics, the Actors Equity Association and the stagehands union all giving both time and money for the benefit of and to raise the standards of the theatre in America. Miss Helen Menken is president, having succeeded Miss Helen Hayes; Miss Gertrude Lawrence, so well-known to Cape Playhouse audiences was First Vice-President when she died in 1952.

The Training Center is under the direction of Dr. Frank C. Davidson. The students have been chosen for outstanding abilities and promise of successful stage careers by a distinguished committee in New York.

This unique project in theatre education is being financed by the Raymond Moore Foundation and by individual contributors.
